THOROUGH INVESTIGATION OF CONDITIONS IN PHILIPPINES

Cong. Frear Demands Searching Inquiry by House Rules Committee of Conditions in Philippines and of Governor-General Wood's Administration

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Thorough investigation by the house rules committee of conditions in the Philippines and of Governor-General Wood's administration is proposed in a resolution drafted by Representative Frear, republican, Wisconsin, for introduction today.

At considerable length, Mr. Frear quotes certain news dispatches, culled from Manila to American newspapers, which referred to alleged misconduct on the part of some American and insular government officials. In conclusion, the Wisconsin representative makes this proposal to the house:

"That the rules committee of the house be instructed to investigate and report to the house as soon as possible, all allegations as herein set forth, relating to the truth or falsity of the Manila dispatches, the actions of the Wood administration in the Philippine government, its legislation, its banks, its railway, sugar centrals and efforts, if any, to exploit the island by American commercial interests, the deposit of Philippine government money in American banks, the facts regarding a Philippine stable government and any other matters proper for a full report thereon to aid congress in preparing any remedial legislation."

Discussing the need of a searching inquiry, Mr. Frear declares that congress should make a full report for any senators, representatives, or other public officials who have received money to influence their attitude toward Philippine independence as repeatedly charged in the different cablegrams quoted.

The Wisconsin representative also asserts that the investigation he proposes "should disclose what valid objection, if any, exists against having the American congress now declare the

STORES ARE NOW OPEN EVENINGS

Shoppers Seem to Show Preference for Merchandise of Practical Value

Local Charities Besieged With Appeals From Needy and Lack Funds

The proximity of Christmas was forcibly brought home to downtown folk today, shoppers besieging the stores at the early-morning openings and proving to be in the best buying mood noted during the season. The fact that today is the first day of the extended hours program of the stores served to keep many shoppers at home until later in the day, but soon saw an ever-swelling tide of purchasers in the streets, while trolley after trolley came to the square well loaded with passengers, to start off again with but few taken seats.

The restaurants reaped a harvest from the shoppers this noon and the regular noon-day diners in many places had trouble in getting served because of the great increase in business. The fact that the stores will remain open this evening served to keep many downtown in the hours that are generally regarded as light business hours. The wisdom of the

HE LOST THE $100 JUST THE SAME

Because he feared that bolsheviks would enter his room at 20 Whipple street and steal a sum of money aggregating about $100, Kostanov Yotienick kept a gun concealed in his trunk, and was fined $100 in district court this morning for unlawfully possessing the weapon. He was arrested last night by Officers Frank Maloney and Alfred Kelly who found a revolver while searching for liquor earlier in the day. Yotienick appealed the fine and was ordered to recognize in $300 for his appearance in superior court.

Reservations for 465 Seats for Annual Souvenir Dinner Already Made

Bowdoin College Professor and Lieut.-Governor Fuller to Be Among Speakers

Professor Austin MacCormick of Bowdoin college, Brunswick, Me., will be a speaker at the annual souvenir dinner of the Lowell Ad club to be given in Memorial Auditorium at 6:30 o'clock New Year's eve. Lieut.-Governor and Mrs. Alvan T. Fuller have accepted invitations to attend as guests of the club.

Arrangements have been made to provide 400 covers for the occasion and Miss Irene Matthews, secretary of the club, said this morning that 465 reservations have already been made. Fire Chief Edward P. Saunders is chairman of the committee on seating arrangements and many tables for special parties have been arranged.

Professor MacCormick is regarded as one of the most humorous after-dinner speakers in the east. Ad club members who attended the annual convention in Portland this summer will remember him as toastmaster of the banquet, which was one of the high lights of the convention.

Edward P. Connor, president of the Lowell Ad club, will be toastmaster at the souvenir dinner. Already a number of music prizes have been donated and individual diners are advised to have their motor cars awaiting them after the dinner, as they will be well loaded with souvenirs to take home. Over 60 firms have already supplied souvenirs to be given the individual diners.

Members who have not yet made reservations are asked to get in touch with Miss Matthews at 147 Market street or by phoning 4115 before the end of the week.

SHOT HALTS FLEEING BOAT

Capt. Wheeler Gives Details of Seizure of Five Launches and Arrest of Crews

14 Men Who Gave Addresses in North End District of Boston Held

Progrm., Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.) The story of the seizure of six rum running launches, 20 miles east of the Boston harbor, was told by Captain William J. Wheeler of the coast guard cutter Tampa on board the boat in Boston harbor today. Soon afterward he went into conference with coast guard and port officials and United States District Attorney Robert O. Harris.

One of the launches, the Lorena, was leading cases from the steamer Arwyco of Liverpool, when sighted by the Tampa yesterday.

Captain Wheeler's first officer said, but her men threw them back to the Arwyco's deck and the Lorena and five other boats scattered. One of the Tampa's guns was fired, however, and a warning shot given, upon which all except the Lorena approached the cutter. The Lorena made off, but a bullet shot caused her to leave to, and the launches, the Lorena, manned by men from the Tampa, were towed to Boston.

As no liquor was found aboard any of the prizes, the authorities were in doubt as to what charge could be laid against their crews. Captain Wheeler was closely questioned as to the circumstances of the capture.

Fourteen men were arrested and brought in on the Tampa. They all gave their addresses in the North End district of Boston, and said their names were as follows: Herman Bloh, James Dalton, John Gaudin, Vincent Scuderi, John Tully, Peter Belterman, Mark Gaudin, Ferdinand Salvadore, Louis Colla, Dominick Jordan, Leo Zingra, Mike Selavono, Joseph Tully, Dominick Tully, (his son) Joe Di Eborio, and Joe Messina. The launches were the Lorena, 255, 1177, 1178, the Angelo Padre, and 2780.

Captain Wheeler said that three schooners, supposedly rum ships, were lying about 20 miles off the coast. The launches, the Lorena, and the Arwyco, both of Lunenburg, N. S., were sighted off Cape Ann, and the Grace Hills, also of Lunenburg, was four miles inshore from the scene of yesterday's seizure.

Police Supt. Thomas R. Atkinson in a statement today to The Sun concerning the unusually large number of boys arrested recently for larceny, places the blame for the boys' acts directly upon the parents.

In every case where boys under 18 years of age are arrested on such serious charges as larceny, an effort is being made by the police to find out where the responsibility rests so that in juvenile court, the judge may be made cognizant with the facts not only of the charges but also of the causes leading up to the boys' falling within the grasp of the law.

In the majority of cases where investigations have been made, it was found that the boys arrested were members of street corner gangs, working under the direction of an older boy who usually made whatever profit was made by the robbery.

These street corner gangs cannot be broken up by the police alone for unless the members of the gangs break the law the police are unable to take any action against them. These gangs, however, in the estimation of the superintendent, can be broken up by the parents of the boys.

There is something wrong with the parents, he says, when boys under 18 are allowed to come and go without any accounting and where they are allowed to stay out until any hour of the night or early morning. While the chief did not say so in so many words, he intimated that the best method of breaking up these gangs would be by proper application of the strap by parents of the boys who make up the gangs.

"I hope," he continued, "that parents will be strict with sons who are under 18 and who desire to walk the streets at all hours of the night because it is a great deal easier to make a criminal than it is to reform a criminal and parents by such action when the boys in young will save themselves a great deal of worry in later life."

200 MEXICAN REBELS KILLED IN THIRTY-HOUR BATTLE

Delayed Message Gives Details of Rebel Defeat at Villa Hermosa—Rebel Advance Toward Mexico City Checked—Peace Near, Says Obregon

(By the Associated Press.) The rebel advance against Mexico City from Vera Cruz has apparently been checked for the moment at least, near San Marcos, 35 miles east of the capital where a Mexican city despatch says the fate of the rebellion is being decided.

Revolutionary headquarters in Vera Cruz claim the rebels have withdrawn toward the capital, but this is not borne out by newspaper correspondents on the scene who report that the situation has remained stationary since Tuesday's fighting, with the advance guards of the opposing forces in contact near San Marcos.

President Obregon, in a message to The Associated Press, brands the rebels' claim as false and says he has "reason to believe that peace will be restored very quickly."

A federal thrust from the south in an effort to cut the railway line between Vera Cruz and the rebel armies is reported in a movement by General Juan Dominguez over the railway from Santa Lucrécia, with Cordoba and Orizaba as his objectives.

In the western area, the Mexican war department says the operations against Guadalupe, the rebel stronghold, are "developing favorably."

Fighting Resumed
MEXICO CITY, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.) Fighting resumed at Apizaco, 35 miles from here, stated that fighting has been resumed on the outskirts of Puebla and Esperanza while Tehuacan has been evacuated by the forces under General Fortuna Maycotte and occupied by a federal column. Puebla is 63 miles southeast of Mexico City.

Denies Offer to Mediate
MEXICO CITY, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.) Enrique Collado, secretary of the Interior, denying reports that Washington had offered to mediate with those rebelling against the obregon government, said: "Mexico has not officially received the proposition, which would have been reported, as it would imply recognition of the rebels' belligerency."

200 Rebels Killed
MEXICO CITY, Dec. 19.—(By the Associated Press.) (Delayed.) Rebels attacking Villa Hermosa, capital of the state of Tlaxcala, have been defeated after a 24-hour battle with the loss of 200 killed and more than that number wounded, according to an official bulletin issued by the war department.

Woman Killed by Bandit
HAKERS, Dec. 20.—Mrs. Emily Christensen (Lynch), formerly of Baker, Ore., has been killed at Tula, Mexico, by bandits, according to word received here by J. E. Fox from Earl Barker, the woman's husband, at Tampico. Earlhart said that he and his two small children were safe.

POPE CREATES TWO CARDINALS AT SECRET CONSISTORY

Two Italians Made Princes of Catholic Church Amid All the Dignity and Splendor That Characterize One of the Most Solemn Functions of the Church

ROME, Dec. 20. (By the Associated Press.) Pope Pius XI, at a secret consistory today, created two Italian cardinals. They are Evariste Arnaud, papal auditor, and Monsignor Aurelio Galli, director-general of the Vatican museum.

In his allocution delivered at the secret consistory today, Pope Pius XI pointed out that peace conditions in Europe had not changed for the better since his last consistory. He recalled the recent visit of King Alfonso and Queen Victoria of Spain, and announced that a Irish question was approaching a settlement.

Today's function was held in the consistorial hall of the Vatican amid all the dignity and splendor that characterize one of the most solemn functions of the church. The papal curia began an hour before the stated

FOX CASE TO GO TO JURY BEFORE NIGHT

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 20.—The case of Philip E. Fox, Ku Klux Klan publisher, charged with the murder of William H. Murray, Irish attorney, probably will be in the hands of the jury before night.

Robert Allen, Dallas, Tex., attorney was named to continue the defense argument when the court opened today. Harkness, former governor of Georgia, will deliver the defense, Solicitor John A. Boykin will deliver the final prosecution argument.

The defense pleaded that Fox was insane and that the state had failed to establish a motive for the killing.

The case involving the Joseph Fiske estate and the sale of the Fiske block in Central street by the real estate firm of Robbins & Ellis, trustees, scheduled for hearing in probate court at 10 o'clock today, has been continued to January 2, pending settlement.

Atty. William D. Regan, representing Mrs. Fiske and the minor children, said today that he has high hopes for settlement of the estate prior to the continuance date.

CAB AND ELECTRIC CAR LOCK HORNS

Traffic on Central street near Green street was tied up for several minutes this morning when an electric car and a cab owned by the Yellow Cab company met head-on and locked horns. Neither the car nor the cab was damaged to any extent, the only visible damage being to the fender of the electric car, on which the right front wheel of the cab rested when both cars were brought to a stop.

FAVORABLE REPORT ON NEW ALUMNI FIELD

Edward W. Trull, treasurer of the Lowell High School Alumni association, this morning received a highly complimentary report from Alfred P. Foote, commissioner of the state department of public safety, concerning the ratings given in the inspection report of the new Alumni field.

The report, made a short time ago by Inspector Joseph E. Cobb, states that the structural condition of the stands is good; the facility of escape is good; the water supply is good; the lighting apparatus is good; the protection against neighborhood hazard is good; the general condition of appliances and apparatus is good; the rating as a whole is good; and the rating with regard to the safety of the audience is excellent.

In view of the fact that the Alumni association undertook to renovate the park on short notice, Treasurer Trull feels elated over the state report.

RUNAWAY TRUCK IN MIDDLE STREET

A loaded coal truck owned by the Horne Coal Co. went on a spree in Middle street shortly after 3 o'clock today and after ricocheting off two automobiles parked at the curb came within an ace of ploughing its way through one of the big plate glass show windows of the new Garfield Furniture Co. Traffic Officer Edward J. Connors caught the emergency brake just in time to stall the motor and stop the truck just a few inches from the window.

The driver of the truck was not in the machine at the time, but had gone into the alleyway between the Garfield and Miller streets. The truck, with motor running, was left standing in Middle street. It is believed the vibrations of the engine put the car in gear and without any outside assistance it began to back toward Central street. It first struck the rear-end of the automobile of Joseph Peabody of the Traders & Mechanics Insurance Co., and then the machine of John J. Hogan, electrical dealer. It then began to mount the sidewalk and back toward the Garfield windows. It was at this moment that Officer Connors caught the side of the truck, jammed on the emergency brake and stopped the party.

ROGERS HALL STUDENTS ON WAY HOME

Eighty-five pupils of Rogers Hall school are today speeding to their homes in all corners of the United States. The combined Christmas and New Year's vacations are on.

Until the return of the young ladies to their studies at the re-opening of the school on January 3, the institution on Rogers street will be minus its usual colorful activities of students' feminine.

The final departure for homeland took place yesterday afternoon and last evening. More than 50 pupils entrained on Tuesday for family firesides far and near. Yesterday's departures included those who reside nearer Lowell.

Nearly every large city in the United States is represented on Rogers Hall school enrollments. Some students come from as far away as the state of Washington. Among the first to leave Lowell with Christmas baggage on suite were pupils bound for Pacific coast states and the far south. This year's student enrollment has been an impressive one in number of arrivals from far distances.

The school is gaily decorated with holiday wreaths and other sparkling Christmas mementoes. The brilliantly decorated Yuletide festival tree that charmed the faculty members, pupils and guests at the Christmas-tree celebration and dinner Tuesday night, is still in place. At that time about 75 children were treated to a genuine Christmas party with all accessories to please their childish hearts. It was one of the merriest parties ever conducted at Rogers Hall school.

Classes for the present season were concluded officially on Dec. 19. Resumption of school schedules will come on Jan. 9, with no New Year's observances at the institution on Rogers street because of school closing.

The cases of Peter Sincelakin and John Sincelakin, charged with arson in connection with a fire in a fruit and confectionery store in Middlesex street about a month ago, were continued in superior court yesterday until January 11.

APPEAL TO FARMERS

Federal Farm Loan Board
Urges Them to Turn to
Diversification of Crops

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The Federal Farm Loan board urged the farmers of the country yesterday to turn to diversification of crops and the development of co-operative marketing as the only sound basis for agricultural prosperity.

Based on its observations on data supplied by the 12 federal land bank presidents who have just concluded their winter conference here, the board said in a statement that conditions in the agricultural industry showed a "very satisfactory improvement" but it felt that full advantage of the situation might not be taken by the farmers unless they diversified crops and organized for their sale.

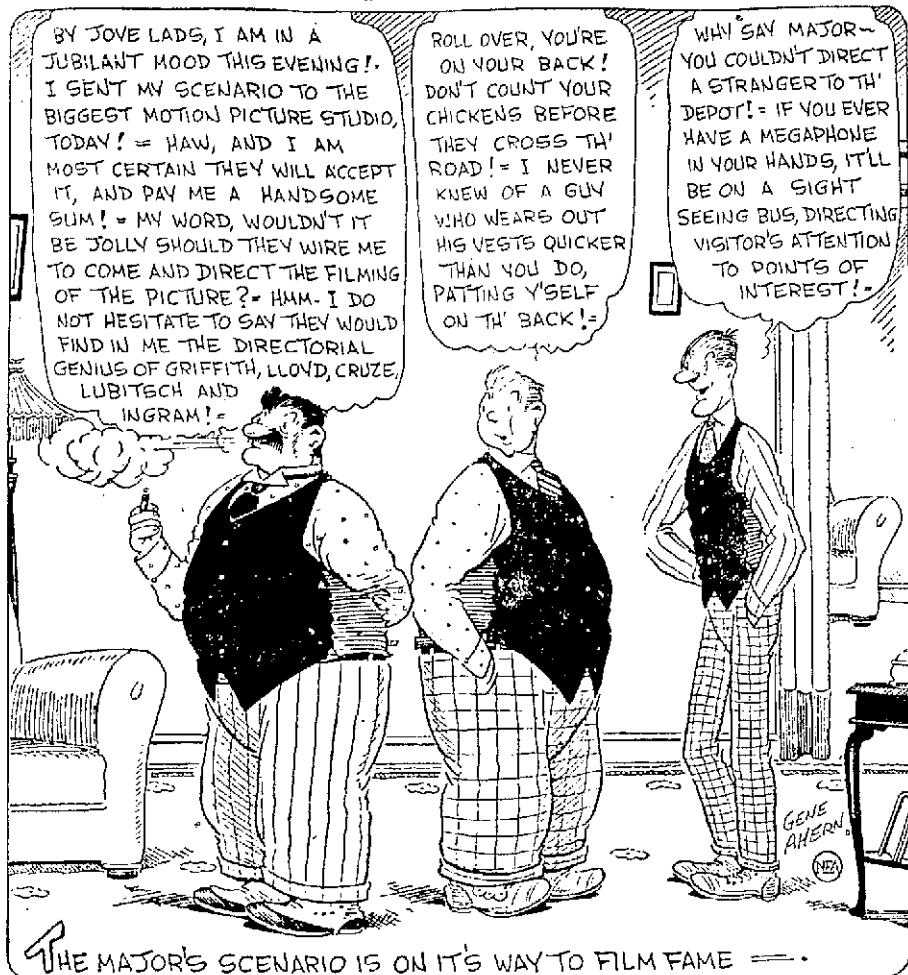

The information furnished by the bank officials gave every reason, the statement said, for the belief that the improvement noted in the past year would continue.

GUARD SLAYER OF "KID DROPPER"

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Precautions were taken yesterday by the police to prevent gangsters from carrying out their threat "to get" Louis Cohen, slayer of the notorious "Kid Dropper," when he departed for Sing Sing.

Nine deputy sheriffs escorted Cohen and other prisoners. Several squads of patrolmen and detectives were scattered about the Grand Central station. Cohen was sentenced to serve from 20 years to life.

The authorities were unable to account for the explosion, which blew out one end of the tank.

BOYS' CLUB CONFERENCE TO AID GERMAN TRADE UNION MOVEMENT

Lowell Boys' Club Will Be Well Represented at Coming Conference

Lowell Boys' club will be well represented at the coming conference of the New England division of the Boys' Club Federation in the Swiss room of Copley Place hotel, Boston, January 21. Major Walter J. Hayes will be there and a committee representing the Boys' club is also planning to go.

Reports of club report covering New England cities and towns, will be read at this conference. Lowell will have one of the most important reports on the list to offer, local clubmen said today.

No club of its kind in the eastern states has been doing and still is doing more organization work among the boys of the community than Lowell's ready friend of eager youth. National club organizations have more than once testified to the remarkable work performed here.

The contributions of money made yearly by Lowell business men of standing are never ceasing in volume of regularity. Full reports of work accomplished in that city and vicinity will be made by local Rotarians, at the request of Richard S. Teeling, New England club representative in Boston, and President David W. Armstrong of Worcester, long-time leader of the boys' work activities in this section of the United States.

BODY OF TRAIN VICTIM NOT IDENTIFIED

The remains of the man who lost his life last Monday morning when struck by a train in the freight yards of the Boston & Maine railroad near Tanner street, have not yet been identified. Undertakers J. F. O'Donnell & Sons, Market street, as well as the police and hospital authorities, have worked diligently for clues that might lead to identification, but without avail.

The remains will be retained for the present in the O'Donnell morgue pending burial plans now in abeyance, because of the desire of the authorities and undertakers to obtain identification if it is a possible thing.

extended hours was conclusively proven by the patronage enjoyed by all stores.

Useful Gifts Have the Call

Useful gifts seem to have the call this year and the buying of apparel for gifts seems to be quite the vogue. In the men's stores, gloves, handkerchiefs, socks, bath towels and shirts are in consistent demand, while women's stores say dainty articles of intimate feminine apparel seem to be most popular with gift buyers.

The gift shops are doing a consistent business, but toys and other articles do not appear to be in demand as in former years. A growing buying power that is showing increased strength almost hourly is likely, however, to upset these observations.

Salvationists Are Remembered

Many shoppers find time to stop in their visits from store to store, and drop change in the many kettles conspicuously posted by the Salvation Army workers who dot the downtown curbs in conspicuous and strategic places. Donations this year, however, have not thus far been as generous as in other years, although the number of expectant beneficiaries is growing larger rather than declining.

The last day or two have shown better receipts when the kettles were counted out at night, but still not up to last year's figures.

Social Service League

The Lowell Social Service league has received in the neighborhood of 10 appeals for aid from deserving poor families of the city. Thus far no donations have been received to take care of them and persons willing to loosen their purse-strings to bring pleasure among needy folk are asked to get in touch with the league workers at their office on the third floor of the Fairburn building.

Several needy cases have been turned over to churches and other service units which prefer to remain inconspicuous in their charitable acts. Nevertheless, there are many poor and needy families for whom the outlook is none too rosy unless folk who can afford to decide to do their bit towards spreading holiday cheer.

The Lowell Guild

The Lowell Guild will not have a Christmas tree party this year, as it did last year, but nevertheless will do its share towards taking care of needy cases that it has had under care and observation for some time past.

About 40 Christmas baskets will be distributed from the Tutton street headquarters. Each basket will contain a chicken or pair of chickens, according to the size of the family, as well as fruits, jellies, jams, preserves, vegetables and canned goods.

Have Special Committee

A special committee of three of the women members of the guild council has charge of this work. Mrs. James Owens is chairman of this committee and she is receiving whole-hearted and enthusiastic assistance from Mrs. Florence MacPhail and Miss Angie Coughlin.

Families are cared for from funds obtained through voluntary subscriptions and due to the limited funds, first call has been given to those families which have the most need. The families which have reported, due to lack of funds, it is highly probable that families in addition to those already listed can be cared for by the guild unless additional subscriptions are sent in by some kind-hearted souls.

Lowell ladies of Elks, under the direction of the esteemed leading knight, will carry on its usual extensive yet unobtrusive charitable work among needy families brought to its notice.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—A fund to enable the German trade union movement to survive the period of economic distress which is said to be threatening its existence, will be sought from members of the American Federation of Labor.

President Gompers, in announcing the decision of the federation's executive council to appeal for the relief fund, said that it did not intend to permit workers to help maintain the union organization in Germany. The fund, which will be in charge of a large committee of officers of American unions, will be used, Mr. Gompers explained, only for maintenance of the German trade union movement "until something of economic order is restored."

NO DATE SET FOR SCHOOL RE-OPENING

The public schools will close at the end of session tomorrow, but the re-opening date has not been fixed. Superintendent Hugh C. Molloy said today they may re-open on December 31 or on January 2, but the question will be submitted to the school committee at its meeting tomorrow night. New Year's comes on a Tuesday and the superintendent desires to have the committee say whether the schools will hold sessions on Monday or continue the holiday recess until Wednesday, January 2.

COAL CONSIDERABLY ABOVE REQUIREMENTS

The purchasing agent's department today received an analysis of the coal recently supplied by the Chelmsford Street hospital and city hall by the Thorndike Coal Co. and finds that whereas 14,400 British thermal units were required in the requisition the coal tests nearer 15,000, or considerably above the requirements. Against the requirement of 14,400 B.T.U.'s, the hospital coal tested 14,568 and the city hall fuel, 14,800. The tests were made for the city by Professor Louis A. Olney of the Lowell Textile school.

The Christmas number of the Lowell High School Review was placed on sale this morning in the various departments of the school. A crisp and red cover bearing the likenesses of old Santa Claus and 30 pages of stories, poems and jokes, many of them appropriate to the season of good wishes and happy greetings, make up the best issue to be published so far this year.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
Chamber of commerce members are notified today that nominations for 1924 officers will be made at the primary election, Jan. 15. The election is slated for 8 a. m. Members have thus far taken but little interest in the coming election, and it is believed that few changes will be made in the present organization personnel.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

OPERA HOUSE
Dan Caswell, who has won fame as a singer of Polka girls, will headline the special vaudeville and picture bill at the Lowell Opera House Saturday afternoon and evening. With him will be June Castleman, former Polka girl to whom he was recently wed. His first wife was Jessie Reed, another Polka beauty.

There will be four other classy acts. The feature picture will present the "million dollar beauty," Corliss Palm, in "The Eternal Two," a story of this special show and for "Mary," the Xmas week attraction of the Luntzinger players are now on sale.

RIALTO THEATRE
Catherine Calvert, noted stage star, late of Miss Skinner's "Blood and Sand" company, appears in the new film story, "That Woman," which opens at the Rialto Theatre today. In this drama, Miss Calvert is seen as a musical comedy star who stirs up a hornet's nest when she marries the son of a millionaire. The old man, although he has never seen the wife of his son, is dead set against her because she is a woman of the stage, and for that reason, and her adventures and gives the boy's friends a chance to point to her as "That Woman." The elaborate father does not realize, however, although she is on the stage, she comes from a family and is a highly educated young lady.

He tempts her with large sums of money which she refuses, but when he tells her that she is ruining his son's career, she hesitates. Then you will have to see the rest of the picture yourself to see how this bright young actress won the old man over to her side and how she made everything and happily for everybody concerned.

The other feature attraction on the bill is "Don Quixote" of the Rio Grande, starring Jack Hoxie. In this epic western story, Hoxie is seen as a romantic rowpuncher, who would rather read romantic stories than go after bandits, as is usually the case in western stories. You'll like Hoxie in this one, for it develops into a fast moving red-blooded action story.

A comedy and the News will also be on the bill. Another long feature, "The Girl Who Sings," will be shown Sunday.

THE STRAND THEATRE
"The Day of Faith," the new Goldwyn production an adaptation from Arthur Somers Roche's story, will be the attraction extraordinary. The Strand beginning today. Eleanor Boardman, Tyrone Power and Raymond Griffith are among those appearing in the cast. "My neighbor is perfect" is the general theme upon which the story is written. A Band Heavens, an idealized rags this his doctrine and in endeavoring to carry it out is subjected to severe physical treatment. The author of the story is a Holy Cross college graduate, and for a time was a well-known practicing attorney in Boston. It wrote many successful magazine stories, and of late has given several good stories to the screen.

Charles "Buck" Jones in "The Good-bye" will be the second feature on the bill. Jones never appeared to better advantage than in this offering, which is saying considerable when one takes into consideration his many successes of the recent past.

The usual comedy and Weekly and the musical numbers on The Strand organ, also help make the program one that will compare favorably with the very best in New England. And don't forget the Strand comfort.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

"The strength of a nation has always been in the beauty of its women and civilization never would have been advanced so remarkably had there been no such beauty to wield such potential influence. This is the unqualified statement of Emil Bennett, who appears in the role of the Mild Murkin opposite Douglas Fairbanks in his elaborate screen version of "Robin Hood," which opened a three days' engagement at the Merrimack Square theatre this afternoon.

In the course of the unfolding of the romantic drama abounding in this cinema classic, Miss Bennett's characterization proves a series of charming activities. She charms Robin Hood to such an extent as to inspire him to valorous deeds.

"Robin Hood" is being shown at the regular Merrimack Square prices in order to give all who did not witness it at its previous presentation at advanced prices an opportunity to see it. The companion feature is "South Sea Love," starring charming Shipley Mason.

LOWELL RADIO CLUB

SELLS RADIO SET

Due to the present lack of quarters, the radio set which is the property of the Lowell Radio club, was auctioned off last Sunday at a meeting of the club, and was purchased by Everett Taylor, president of the club, and owner of Station WLT. He intends to install the set at his home at 156 Winthrop avenue. It is probable that when the club finds a place that is suitable for new rooms, and where the interference caused by the city noises in the old quarters will not be present, that a new and up-to-date set will be installed. The auction was conducted by Randolph Reed.

COAL CAP ORDER

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Another postponement of the effective date of the assigned coal cap order has been made by the interstate commerce commission until April 1, 1924.

The order resulted from a decision of the commission that railroads could no longer give special service to coal mines producing road fuel or to owners of private cars used in transporting coal, and originally was to have gone into effect Jan. 1. Protests from railroads and private car owners resulted in a repeal of the case.

Pope Creates Two Cardinals

When thrones of Armenia and Persia lined the two old cardinals, the Borgo Vecchio and the Lateran, leading to the Vatican, the cardinals' robes of red and white, the apostolic robes of the pope, in the creation of prince of the church. disposed of Cardinal Gasparri, principal secretary of state, relative to relieving the situation of Central Europe, was having fairly results, but he said much still remained to be done because of the complicated business and enormous number of all kinds were increasing, especially with the approach of winter.

Cardinal Gasparri has appealed for help to the nations of so-called countries having an abundance of wheat, and the pope said he trusted this appeal might bear results sufficient to relieve the situation.

He expressed great gratification at the abundance of help received from all sides and his thanks for the efforts put forward to save from death an army of unfortunate people in Central Europe and the Near East.

Turning to Russia, His Holiness noted extreme anxiety for the life of Alexander, grand duke of Moscow, who still suffers in his person, but against these reasons for sorrow that was to be put reasons for rejoicing, such as the holding of the Russian state church in Paris and the return of the Russian emigrants to the sanctuary of St. Thomas in the communion of St. Joseph and the visit to Rome of the Spanish sovereign, who during their entire sojourn in this eternal city, both in our presence and before the Roman people, gave the noblest testimony of their faith and their devotion to the apostolic See.

The pope added that in the loyalty of the governments to the church it was easy to recognize them as representing the Spanish nation, so faithful to Christ and His year.

Pope Pius concluded by saying: "We announce to you the good news that the question of Ireland, which is so dear to our heart, are happily approaching a settlement. We have comforting assurance of this in the recent pastoral letter of Cardinal Logue, while the latter's work continues."

His Holiness then performed the ceremony of creating the new cardinals.

Continued

Philippine islands are "and of right ought to be free and independent." The resolution calls attention to despatches published last May in various American newspapers in which it was declared Governor Wood had in his possession a list of names of "senators, representatives and others prominent in Washington social life, who received payment from the Philippine independence movement." It also referred to the charges made in some quarters that Governor Wood had usurped power and "thus assumed the role of dictator."

Attention is called to the row which developed recently between Governor Wood and various local government officials and culminated in the resignation of the latter and reference is made to Governor Wood's administration in Cuba and to the presidential campaign conducted in his behalf in 1920.

"In justice to Governor Wood and those who contributed to his political campaign," the resolution reads, "the investigation should be extended to include charges to the effect that rights in the Philippines given or proposed to private American interests are not unrelated to such contributions."

Mr. Frazier suggests that the investigation committee would do well to look into the deposit of Philippine government funds in various American banks. A total of $11,449,214 of such funds, he says, are in banks and trust companies in the United States.

MAH-JONGG

BY J. P. BABCOCK

Leading Mah Jongg Authority and Author of Babcock's Red Book of Rules

No. 8—Special Bonus Scores

Special bonus scores, which apply only to the winning hand, are as follows:

- 1—Mah Jongg 20 points
- 2—Winning tile drawn 2 points
- 3—Mah Jongg on special draw of a loose tile after completing four of a kind 10 points
- 4—No score other than Mah Jongg 10 points
- 5—Filling only possible place to win 2 points
- 6—No runs, concealed or exposed 10 points
- 7—Stealing the fourth to win 10 points
- 8—Mah Jongg on last live tile 10 points

I will explain these bonuses more fully.

1—For winning a hand (Mah Jongg) a bonus of 20 is given always.

2—When the winning tile is drawn from the wall (not poked or chewed) a bonus of two is added.

3—You will remember that for every four of a kind declared, you must draw a loose tile from the wall. If you complete your hand for Mah Jongg on such a draw, you are allowed 8 points extra.

This 8, plus the 2 for drawing the winning tile, scores you 10 total as bonus for the draw.

How to Get Bonus

4—If you win a hand with a total of 20 points (the bonus for Mah Jongg) a consolation 10 points is allowed you.

However, if your score totals 22 (20 for Mah Jongg, plus 2 for drawing the winning tile, or 2 for drawing only place to win) you cannot get the consolation bonus. Your score in this case is 22, not 30.

5—Filling the only possible place to win, which scores a bonus of 2, means that only one particular tile will give you Mah Jongg, and that you draw that tile. In using the term "particular tile" I mean a tile of a particular designation, such as Red Dragon, Two Bamboo, etc. This bonus is not dependent upon discards. Thus if a 3 that would give you Mah Jongg and no other tile would, you would get your bonus irrespective of how many 3 dots had been discarded, or if none had.

Conversely, if you held two pinks, and a third to either pair would give you Mah Jongg, you would not get your bonus if two tiles of one pair had been discarded. This, of course, practically means that the only tile which would win for you would be a third to one pair, but as discards do not affect this bonus, theoretically, you could win by drawing a third to either pair.

6—Filling the Band

The cases where you "fill to the only possible place to win" are: (a) You draw the middle tile to a sequence, or the end tile to a sequence open at one end only; (b) You draw the second to a pair.

7—Should a player have three of a kind exposed and later declare the fourth, you may pook this fourth for Mah Jongg. This is called "Stealing the fourth to win" and entitles you to a bonus of 10. This cannot be done on a declaration of four at one time, nor can you claim the bonus if a person with three of a kind should elect for any reason to discard the fourth instead of declaring it.

8—If the game progresses to a point where there are only 14 tiles left in the wall, the hand is a draw. As the last 14 tiles are dealt, the 15th from the wall is known as the "last live tile." Should a player complete his hand for Mah Jongg on the draw of the last live tile, he is given a bonus of 5, which with the 2 points for drawing the winning tile will total him 10 points on the draw.

The first determination of the validity of light was made by Homer in 1875.

THE SALVATION ARMY

Christmas Collection Kettles

Are Not Filling Up Very Rapidly This Year

Remember the Salvation Army!

Appeals to Lowell charity are never made in vain.

Don't forget the organization that strives 365 days in the year to provide clothing, food and medical supplies as well as money for applicants who suffer from the scourge of poverty, ill nourishment, sickness, disease and privations sometimes untold.

Salvation Army Christmas collection kettles are not filling up so rapidly this season as was the case last year.

Commandant Charles M. Abbott, the new local leader of the Army, stationed with headquarters on Appleton street, feels that many of the pitiable requests now on file at Army offices for immediate relief, may have to go unanswered if warm-hearted men and women do not act quickly in providing sufficient funds to assist the Army workers in responding to the increasing number of appeals.

Although not by any means discouraged at the prospects ahead, Commandant Abbott and his co-workers in Army relief work, are today convinced that many people who might contribute to the cause have neglected to do so because they have not been aware of the serious situation that confronts relief workers in Lowell and vicinity this year.

The appeals for charitable aid have more than doubled during the past month, Mr. Abbott reports. He has the facts to back up his sorry statement, too.

The present list of poverty-stricken men, women and children on the Army's carefully checked-up list is imposing enough to touch the coldest heart. Listen to a small portion of the doleful list of cases that cannot be reported in full in these columns:

There is one Lowell family with husband and wife and ten children, absolutely "down and out" through no fault of the parents. Sickness rages, the pantry has been regularly emptied, and the family is now in a deplorable case.

Another family on Commandant Abbott's list consists of parents with nine children, some of them ill. The father is out of work and not well paid. This case is among the deplorable ones.

A third case has six children, two ill and a mother in a local hospital. The father returns from his work and helps to care for the sorry household, but his funds are small and this condition, thoroughly investigated, is being relieved temporarily by the Salvation Army workers and house visitors.

A well-known local insurance company man today provided the Army commandant with an impressive list of 51 families, all of whom are in need of Christmas charity. It was collected by young men familiar with Lowell homes where small insurance benefits are paid weekly by the house-to-house collective system. The agents are doing their part in bringing to the attention of the proper authorities conditions in numerous homes that have thoroughly aroused their sympathetic natures. It is evidence, charitable workers say, of a splendid work in civic welfare.

In Merrimack square, perhaps, collections have come in more steadily and from a various assortment of people. Street hawkmen have contributed liberally. "Ask the starter—he knows!"

Newsboys trot along in the late afternoon and evening and contribute their mites, too. That fact is verified today by the busy-checked young Salvation Army boys who stand in front of The Sun building and tenderly ring her little bell and smile at all passersby. This kettle is the newboys' kettle, some Army collectors call it.

Army collectors are also going the rounds of the city, calling at business houses, homes, shops, stores, garages, halls and all havens of human activities. Commandant Abbott wants it clearly understood that the Army relief work is distributed among the representatives of all races and creeds—no one is left out if the relief packages, medicine or food are sufficient to go around.

Some Lowell contributors are sending good-sized checks to Army headquarters. Commandant Abbott wishes there might be more of them. All contributions by mail or otherwise will be duly and gratefully acknowledged and reported upon request, of all relief work done and where and how the money has been spent in this Yuletide campaign to aid Lowell's unfortunate people.

TO AMEND VOLSTEAD ACT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20—Amendment of the Volstead act, increasing the legal alcoholic content of beverages to three per cent and removing present restrictions on issuance of physicians' prescriptions, was proposed in two bills yesterday by Senator Edge, republican, New Jersey.

Errors of as much as 25 per cent are not uncommon in household measuring cups, now on the market. Investigation by the United States bureau of standards has revealed.

Following the election an entertainment was given by the following: Dixie trio, Raymond Venard, Mr. Dawson and Mr. Jordan. A luncheon and smelter talk followed the entertainment, the principal speakers being P. G. Harry H. Lawrence of Lawrence and D. G. G. James G. Souther of Andover.

BURGLAR SHOT, STOLEN CLOTH RECOVERED

BOSTON, Dec. 20.—Three burglars who had loaded stolen cloth from a South End tailor shop into a stolen automobile early today, escaped after one of them apparently had been wounded by a shot from a patrolman Richard H. Hickey's pistol. Hickey saw the car standing in front of Julius Adlo's tailor shop on Hollis street, and a man beside it with a bundle of cloth in his arms.

The man ran and when he disregarded the patrolman's order to stop, Hickey fired. The man staggered against a building and fell. At the same moment Hickey heard a noise behind him, and turned to see two other men come from the tailor shop. They distanced him and when he returned, he found that the first burglar had disappeared. A bystander told the officer that someone had picked up the man and taken him away in an automobile.

The stolen cloth, valued at $1600, was found in the car which the burglars had abandoned. The car was found to have been stolen last night from Martin Hennessey of this city.

GIRL WINS SUIT AGAINST FATHER

LAWRENCE, Dec. 20.—Judge Joseph A. Walsh in superior court yesterday ordered a verdict for the defendant in the case of Mary Mason, 11 years old, against her father, Alex. Mason of 75 Myrtle street, Lawrence.

In an action of tort for $3000, and for the care of the support of the child, the girl's father had sued her for his decision on a question of law.

There is no local precedent of a child suing a parent for damages as a result of injuries received in an accident. The girl was seriously hurt in an automobile accident Oct. 14, 1921, while riding in her father's car. Counsel for the girl claimed she was a passenger in the car by order of her father, who at the time was living apart from his wife, and contended that the child was legally in the custody of her mother. It was claimed in the action that since the accident the girl's mental development has been retarded.

CLOSE OF LECTURES AT NORMAL SCHOOL

The last of a series of lectures on the general subject, "General Opportunities for Teachers," which has been running at the State Normal school weekly, was given yesterday by Harry E. Gardner, of the Teachers' Registration bureau in Boston. The phase of the subject discussed by Mr. Gardner was "Factors in the Superintendent's Selection of a Teacher." He was introduced by his daughter, a student at the school.

While there is a great deal of importance in the preparation that the prospective teacher must have in study and practice along the line that she is going to teach, it is important also that he or she should know how to get the position as well as being able to obtain it after she is accepted. Teachers are not born as is popularly supposed, but through the efforts of the normal schools in the state, they can be and are made. Certain things are more or less essential however, such as good health, love of children, the desire to teach, and the will to persevere in the face of disappointment.

The importance of proper preparation is evidenced by the fact that of all the teachers in rural schools, where the least money is paid, over 60 per cent are not graduates of college or normal school. The reason is that superintendents of city school systems insist on knowing that the future instructor is thoroughly prepared, and the best way of knowing this is by a careful survey of the student record in school. The elements in this record that are considered as the most important are attitude, scholarship, regularity of attendance, faithfulness in doing work, and ability to keep going under adverse conditions. In the case of a teacher who has had experience, her record is also consulted to determine her attitude toward her pupils, toward discipline, and her spirit in community matters.

Other points considered important by the superintendents are personality, personal appearance, personal bearing, and the manner in which the applicant handles a class. In the matter of personal appearance, the applicant should be clean, neat, and well-dressed. The use of cosmetics for adornment of the features, fineness in bearing, and carrying a well-modulated voice, and an absence in appearance of nervousness, are all qualities which are highly valued. The applicant should be taken to be good penmanship, punctuate properly, and in all come as close to perfection as is possible. Many teachers have lost positions because they differed with Webster in the spelling of words which they found it necessary to use.

In closing, Mr. Gardner remarked that if the graduate who seeks a position is able to combine the superior record through the medium of teaching, and possesses most of the other requisites she is fairly certain of landing the job.

SALE OF GOVERNMENT PROPERTY PROPOSED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Sale of the following government property is proposed in an omnibus bill prepared today by Representative Britton, Republican, Illinois, a member of the naval committee at Washington. The bill provides for the sale of the following property: An old coal depot at Froehman's Bay, Ala., and a nitre depot at Malden, Mass.

GOULD ESTATE SHRINKS $35,000,000

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—The estate of the late George Jay Gould has shrunk in value from $82,000,000 at the time of his death last May to $46,250,000. This was announced yesterday by Supreme Court Justice in ordering payment of $602,871.25 each to three children by Mr. Gould's first wife—Judy Gould, Mrs. Gloria Gould Bishop and Mrs. Edith Gould Wainwright. The money is to come from that part of the estate set aside for their father during his life time and is to be in the nature of a payment on account of their shares in the principal of the trust estate.

The $35,000,000 slump in a period of seven months is in the actual market value of securities.

10-GAME SCHEDULE TOO MUCH FOR ONE SEASON

"Of one thing I am convinced," says Coach Knute Rockne of Notre Dame, "no college team can play 10 games on successive Saturdays, and a majority of their major contests, and keep from going stale."

"The season just closed has taught me that lesson. Next season it is my intention to play only eight games, with a breathing spell before one of the contests. Since Nebraska has beaten us on Saturdays, I am confident in all probability I will point my team for that game next season. We must win out these two defeats."

"A team without spirit, the old adage, is no good, regardless of its recognized strength. Too much work results in staleness, and when a team goes stale it loses its life."

"My team lacked fighting spirit in the Nebraska game and suffered defeat. Lack of spirit is a feature of play that every coach must constantly guard against."

PARANAL CANAL RECORD

ALIENS SMUGGLED IN SEIZES TRUCK WITH

$20 to $40 Per Head Fare

1200 GALS. OF ALCOHOL

Charged by Smugglers

Along Niagara Frontier

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Dec. 20.—Twenty to forty dollars per head, is the fare smugglers along the Niagara frontier collect from aliens seeking illegal entrance into the United States. Business is said to be brisk. Hundreds of aliens, stranded in Canada, with the filing of the American immigration quotas, are willing to pay in advance for passage. The transportation is equally profitable for the smuggler, regardless of his success or failure in penetrating the customs lines. He gives no refund when his charges are caught.

At Youngstown on the lower river, where the smugglers' hazards are increased by the proximity of Port Niagara and the coast guard station, the quoted price on good authority is $40. At Lewiston, further up the river, it drops to $20.

Passage over the international bridge at Niagara falls is sold at an DANVERS, Dec. 20.—Patrolman Raymond E. Kerwin, single handed, apprehended a truck early this morning loaded with 1200 gallons of alcohol in cans. George D. Griffin, 10 Colfax street, and Leonard Skeehan, 7 Fullerton street, both of Peabody, were arrested on a charge of keeping. The truck was registered as belonging to John J. Fox of 2 Fountain street, Peabody.

Kerwin saw the truck coming from the water front, gave chase in another automobile and overhauled it near the Peabody line. The condition of the boxes containing the cans indicated that it had been landed from a boat.

average price of $25. Immigration authorities cite numerous instances in which aliens have paid that sum in advance, only to be turned back or taken into custody.

TO BECOME A "CONVICT" NOVITIATE STUDENT IS DRAWING PLANS HERE

Trustee Bok to Live in Cell at

Penitentiary to Get First

Hand Information

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 20.—W. C. Bok, appointed member of the board of trustees of the Eastern State penitentiary, plans to become a "novitiate" for two weeks and live in a cell at the institution, to gain first hand information of life behind the prison walls.

Mr. Bok, who was appointed to the board shortly after the jail delivery last month, said today his experience probably would cover the second and third weeks in January. The first day, or so will be spent in a receiving cell, in which the prison physicians observe the new arrivals and examine them for physical defects or diseases. While in that cell, he will have opportunity to learn how the "hard" convicts act, for the observation cells are on the fourth gallery, known to the convict population as "hard men's row."

He will then be assigned to a block and will be given a cell. He will be every morning at 6 o'clock and at 7 o'clock with the hundred or more convicts of the same block. He will be marched to the mess hall with his tin plate and cup for breakfast. His days will be spent about the prison yard and in the shops. He plans to spend part of the early evenings in conference with other members of the board of trustees for the purpose of discussing improvements and changes beneficial to the convicts and to the prison officials. At 10 p. m. he will be locked in his cell and the lights turned out, the same as the regular convicts.

DARTMOUTH QUINTET MEETS BROOKLYN

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Dartmouth's intercollegiate league basketball quintet, with but one first string veteran in its lineup, holds a three-day tour against strong metropolitan district teams tonight when it engages the Brooklyn university club five at Brooklyn.

Games with the New York university team and with the President A. C. are to follow on Friday and Saturday night, and through Dartmouth's showing in these contests, intercollegiate league followers expect to gauge Dartmouth's chances for the league title.

Two star football players, Dooley, the varsity quarterback, and Watkins, varsity end, are included in the Dartmouth lineup. Captain Karl Friedman is the single first string veteran.

$1,000 IN BANK, SLEEPS IN BARN FOR ECONOMY

LAWRENCE, Dec. 20.—When Michael (Mick) was arrested yesterday in district court on a charge of vagrancy, his mother caused surprise when she testified that her son had $1,000 in the bank, but was so obsessed with the economy urge that he saved the expense of a room by sleeping in barns and in postrooms. The judge continued the case to verify the woman's statement.

One of the happy results of using "Fruit-a-tives" for Constipation and Bilious Attacks, is the tonic and invigorating effects on the entire system.

Mr. W. H. Ostrander, of 285 Grant st., Buffalo, writes: "No more strong cathartics or salts so long as 'Fruit-a-tives' are obtainable. No more bowels troubled; they have disappeared like magic. I feel more like 40 than 61."

XMAS TREE FOR "Y" DORM. MEN

A silver casserole was presented Mrs. Valentine Wilcox last night at the Y. C. A. in the course of the regular weekly support of the dormitory men. Mrs. Wilcox has been preparing the Red Triangle Village supper all year and the presentation was made by the village mayor, Archibald D. Grant. The waitresses, Christine McPherson, Rose McCawley, Gladys Cox, Bertha Mountain and Gertrude Hanover, were also remembered with appropriate gifts.

Turner Barchard had charge of the evening's arrangements and Gen. Secretary H. E. Howe was the speaker following the dinner. A Christmas tree which provided gifts for every village resident was a feature at the dinner.

CAROLERS WILL TOUR CHELMSFORD

Christmas carolers will tour Chelmsford Sunday evening after the formal community tree exercises. The village singers will visit homes of those who are shut-in or ill and dispense good cheer to all. Mrs. Ralph P. Adams is in charge of the home visitation program and will be glad to receive the names of those who should not be overlooked by the carolers when making the rounds.

The Sunday night exercises at the big tree will start at 8:30. Joseph Heathcock will lead the chorus of men and women and Chelmsford band will play. The Village Improvement association requests that villagers light their homes during the evening.

TROLLEY CO. SHOWS LOSS IN NOVEMBER

After making a profit entry in the books for October the street railway trolley company turned in red ink again in showing how November was for business and the financial report of the Lowell district, issued yesterday, shows a deficit of $262.50 despite a total revenue of $57,103.61.

Total operating expense was $57,366.11 this including taxes, but the deficit is brought about by entering a deduction from the total revenue of $22,429.00, this covering interest at 6 per cent. on cost of property in the district.

Advertisers who use The Sun consistently get greater returns on the money invested than through any other Lowell newspaper. There's a reason. The Sun goes into more homes in Lowell and suburbs than any other Lowell paper and ninety per cent of Sun readers read no other Lowell newspaper.

The couple's bonds are said to have passed through numerous brokerage houses who were ignorant of the forgery, which only were disclosed when purchasers attempted to cash the coupons. DANGER FROM LIGHTS ON CHRISTMAS TREES

Chief Edward F. Saunders of the fire department earnestly endorses the following suggestions in relation to Christmas tree lighting for the purpose of minimizing danger from fire:

Make sure that Christmas trees are securely set up, and that they will not topple over and keep the way clear of heating and lighting fixtures. Use metal tinsel, fake asbestos and powdered mica for snow effects. Instead of paper clippings and cotton. Exercise care with matches and smoking materials, and exercise care in the neighborhood of trees and decorations. Evergreens should be removed immediately after Christmas before they have completely dried out.

Avoid toys requiring alcohol, gasoline or kerosene for their operation, and use only safety-rated power-operated electrical, plastic, and similar toys which use inflammable films. Never give to children, as they are often defectively wired and frequently have weak, dangerous connections; they have caused various burns and fires.

Children should be present at the celebration, tell him to avoid the use of long cotton whistles. His costume can be partially fire-proofed by soaking it in a solution of alum, obtainable at any drug store.

If anyone's clothing catches fire, he should be told to drop it, lie on the ground, and cover himself with a rug or woolen cloth in order to smother the blaze. Keep the flames away from the Merchants should free their business premises of rubbish and paper accumulations, and should insist that employees keep all exits clear. It is difficult, I realize, to keep back rooms tidy during the busy holiday season, but it is well worth the extra effort.

"Of course," concluded the chief, "the business of the fireman is to extinguish fires, and day and night he is ready to answer the summons. But he is ready to answer the summons, and if I understand him, he knows that Christmas is the day of days for him as for anyone else. In all fairness, then, why not make it possible for him to enjoy Christmas? Everybody may help by avoiding those hazards which may take the joy out of the day for them as well as for the fireman."

During the evening, the fire department is providing vaudeville numbers, special entertainers from far and wide and it is expected that a local theatrical house will also assist in completing a most interesting program.

Today the newly laid 120,000 feet of the second floor in the new industrial plant on Button street were shining with cleanliness. Workmen hustled to put the finishing touches on the quarters for the Christmas party.

Heads of all departments are arranging the details for the celebration, and soon the men are working overtime on the program.

An additional feature of the evening winding up the evening's festal offerings will be a concert and dance with latest music by a local 10-piece orchestra.

A committee composed of both men and women active in all departments are now working on the details of the

The parcels post window in the Middle and Bridge street postoffice will be open until 2 o'clock this evening and if there is a demand for an opportunity to mail parcels after that time, the windows will remain open until such demand is satisfied. Very many persons are anxious to mail parcels and it is probable that persons who wish to be sure of having bundles delivered lucidly before Christmas, that today is the last day on which all packages mailed are certain of reaching their destination. The postoffice department is piled high with letters, cards and small parcel matter. The mail is coming in with very collection and on the trains which are bringing it from all parts of the country, slowing up the handling in a perceptible manner, despite the increased force that has been put on to aid the regular employees.

THOROUGH INVESTIGATION OF CONDITIONS IN PHILIPPINES

Cong. Frear Demands Searching Inquiry by House Rules Committee of Conditions in Philippines and of Governor-General Wood's Administration

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Thorough investigation by the house rules committee of conditions in the Philippines and of Gov. Gen. Wood's administration is proposed in a resolution drafted by Representative Frear, republican, Wisconsin, for introduction today.

At considerable length, Mr. Frear quotes certain news dispatches, cabled from Manila to American newspapers, which referred to alleged misconduct on the part of some American and insular government officials. In conclusion, the Wisconsin representative makes this proposal to the house:

"That the rules committee of the house be instructed to investigate and report to the house as soon as practicable, all allegations as herein set forth, relating to the truth or falsity of the Manila dispatches, the actions of Gov. Wood in relation to the Philippine government, its legislation, its

N. Y. Broker Who Made $2,000,000 Gives Business to His Associates

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—Having accumulated a fortune of more than $2,000,000 in Wall street, John D. Rockefeller, one of the leading members of the New York curb market, today announced his retirement from the brokerage field and the gift of his business to three junior members of the firm.

"I have made my pile," Mr. Rockefeller said, "so I am getting out and letting the younger fellows make theirs. I am giving the business because they have earned it and I have no further use for it myself, as I have all the money I need."

Mr. Rockefeller started in Wall street as a $1 a week office boy, shortly after he was graduated from the Union High School, N. Y., high school in 1877. Only a few years later, he was in business for himself, executing orders in the old outdoor curb market on Broad street. He is now only 42 years old.

RUNAWAY TRUCK IN MIDDLE STREET

A loaded coal truck owned by the Home Coal Co. went on a spree in Middle street shortly after 9 o'clock today and after ploughing off two automobiles parked at the curb came within an ace of plunging its way through one of the big plate glass show windows of the new Hartford Furniture Co. Traffic Officer Edward J. Connors caught the emergency brake just in time to stall the motor and stop the truck just a few inches from the window.

The driver of the truck was not in the machine at the time, but had gone into the alleyway between the Garfield and Miller stores. His truck, with motor running, was left standing in Middle street. It is believed the vibrations of the engine put the car in gear and without any outside assistance it began to back toward Central street. It first struck the rear-end of the automobile of Joseph Peabody of the Traders & Mechanics Insurance Co., and then the machine of John J. Hogan, electrical dealer. It then began to mount the sidewalk and back toward the Garfield windows. It was at this moment that Officer Connors reached the side of the truck, jammed on the emergency brake and stopped the party.

TO LIBERALIZE WAR RISK INSURANCE ACT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Amendments to liberalize the war risk insurance act were proposed today by Senator Walsh, democrat, Massachusetts, a member of the committee investigating the veterans' bureau.

"The bill would give veterans suffering from neuropsychiatric and tubercular diseases free treatment irrespective of whether the diseases were of service origin," would repeal the stipulation that such patients must be examined within three years after discharge in order to avail themselves of government aid, and would grant compensation to dependents of soldiers who died from neuropsychiatric or tubercular diseases within three years after discharge.

STORES ARE NOW OPEN EVENINGS

Shoppers Seem to Show Preference for Merchandise of Practical Value

Local Charities Besieged With Appeals From Needy and Lack Funds

The proximity of Christmas was loudly heralded here to-day, as shoppers besieged the stores at the early-morning openings and proving to be in the best buying mood noted during the season. The fact that today is the first day of the extended hours program of the stores served to keep many shoppers home until later in the day, but noon saw an ever-swelling tide of purchasers in the streets, while trolley after trolley came to the square well loaded with passengers, to start off again with but few taken seats.

The restaurants reported a harvest from the shoppers this noon and the regular noon-day diners in many places had trouble in getting served because of the great increase in business. The fact that the stores will remain open this evening served to keep many downtown in the hour that are generally regarded as light business hours. The wisdom of the Fire Tractor Award by Mayor Not Acceptable to Chief Saunders

Acting upon a policy inaugurated the first of the year to approve awards to low bidders when no adequate reasons to the contrary were presented to him, Mayor John J. Donovan today approved the award of a contract to furnish a tractor to the fire department to George W. Morrison, local representative of the Four-Wheel Drive. His bid of $5850 was the lowest of several submitted to the purchasing agent a week or so ago.

The award is not acceptable to Chief Edward F. Saunders of the fire department who so notified the purchasing agent and mayor's office. He favored the purchase of a White tractor, the bid on which was $7500.

"The Four-Wheel-Drive does not come up to specifications," declared Chief Saunders. "The award is not acceptable to me and I will not sign the receipt if the machine is delivered to me."

JUDGE KENYON NOT A CANDIDATE
ST. LOUIS, Dec. 20.—United States Circuit Judge Kenyon, former senator from Iowa, today commencing on reports that certain republicans were considering him as a "dark horse" for the presidential nomination, asserted he would not be a candidate.

"All I want is to be let alone," he said. "I am out of politics."

Judge Kenyon was leader of the farm bloc while in the senate.

Because he feared that bolsheviks would enter his room at 28 Whipple street and steal a sum of money aggregating about $100, Konstantos Yothienik kept a gun concealed in his trunk, and was fined $100 in district court this morning for unlawfully possessing the weapon. He was arrested last night by Officers Frank Mahoney and Alfred Kilroy who found a revolver while searching for liquor earlier in the day. Yothienik appealed the fine and was ordered to recognize in $300 for his appearance in superior court.

ADVERSE REPORT ON FARLEY NOMINATION

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The nomination of Edward P. Farley as chairman of the Shipping board will be reported adversely to the senate under a decision today by the commerce committee.

The committee's action was based entirely, members said, upon provisions of the law which allow only one member of the board to states touching on the Great Lakes. Mr. Farley is from Chicago, and the Lakes section already is represented by Commissioner T. V. O'Rourke, of Buffalo.

By its action the committee overruled President Coolidge's contention that senate confirmation of A. P. Lasker of Chicago as board chairman in 1921 constituted a precedent for similar approval of the Farley nomination. At the time of Mr. Lasker's nomination also, there was another member sitting on the board from the Lake states.

Favorable reports were ordered by the committee on the nomination of Frederick I. Thompson of Alabama and Bert E. Henny of Oregon, appointed as members of the board.

The vote in the committee against Mr. Farley was said by members to be unanimous.

URGE VENIZELLOS TO RETURN TO ATHENS

ATHENS, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—A group representing 4000 officers of the Greek army and navy sent a telegram today to former President Venizelos in Paris, urging him to come to Athens immediately.

Paris advices have indicated that Venizelos was awaiting final results of the Greek elections before deciding whether to return to Greece. It has been stated in quarters close to Venizelos that he would not accept an invitation to return unless he felt satisfied it represented a united call from the Greek people.

SHOT HALTS FLEEING BOAT

Capt. Wheeler Gives Details of Seizure of Five Launches and Arrest of Crews

14 Men Who Gave Addresses in North End District of Boston Held

BOSTON, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—The story of the seizure of six run running launches, 20 miles east of the Boston Lightship, was told by Captain William J. Wheeler of the coast guard cutter Tampa on board the boat in Boston harbor today. Soon afterward he went into conference with coast guard and port officials and United States District Attorney Robert O. Harbo.

One of the launches, the Lorena, was loading cases from the steamer Arctico of Liverpool, when sighted by the Tampa yesterday afternoon. Captain Wheeler's first officer said, but her men threw them back to the Arctico's deck and the Lorena and five other boats scattered. One of the Tampa's guns was trained, however, and a warning hail given, upon which all except the Lorena approached the cutter. The Lorena made off, but a blank shot caused her to leave, and the launches, the Lorena manned by men from the Tampa, were towed to Boston.

As no liquor was found aboard any of the prizes, the authorities were in doubt as to what charge could be laid against their crews. Captain Wheeler was closely questioned as to the circumstances of the capture.

Thirteen men were arrested and brought in on the Tampa. They all gave their addresses in the North End district of Boston, and said their names were as follows: Herman Rich, James Eaton, John Catagano, Vincent Souders, John Cullis, Peter Hollerling, Mario Gerard, Ferdinand Salvatore, Louis Colla, Dominic Woods, Leo Zoraka, Mino Salvano, Joseph Tello, Pasquale Tello (his son) Joe Di Eberta, and Joe Messini. The launches were the Lorena, 255, 517, 0169, the Angelo D'Andre, and 5178.

Captain Wheeler said that three schooners, supposedly run ships, were lying about 20 miles off the coast. The schooners Arctico and Arctico, both of Lunenburg, N. S., were sighted off Cape Ann and the Grace Hilda, also of Lunenburg, was four miles inshore from the scene of yesterday's seizure.

PARENTS TO BLAME FOR DELINQUENT BOYS

Police Supt. Thomas H. Atkinson in a statement today to the Sun concerning the unusually large number of boys arrested recently for larceny, places the blame for the boys' acts directly upon the parents.

In every case where boys under 18 years of age are arrested on such serious charges as larceny, an effort is being made by the police to find out where the responsibility rests so that in juvenile court, the judge may be made cognizant with the facts not only of the charge but also of the causes leading up to the boys' falling within the grasp of the law.

In the majority of cases where investigations have been made, it was found that the parents were to blame.

MEXICAN REBELS KILLED IN THIRTY-HOUR BATTLE

Delayed Message Gives Details of Rebel Defeat at Villa Hermosa—Rebel Advance Toward Mexico City Checked—Peace Near, Says Obregon

(By the Associated Press.)
The rebel advance against Mexico City from Vera Cruz has apparently been checked, for the moment at least, near San Marcos, 25 miles east of the capital where a Mexican city dispatch says the fate of the rebellion is being decided.

Revolutionary head quarters in Vera Cruz claim the rebels have withdrawn toward the capital, but this is not borne out by newspaper correspondents on the scene who report that the situation has remained stationary since Tuesday's fighting, with the advance guards of the opposing forces in contact near San Marcos.

President Obregon, in a message to the Associated Press, brands the rebels' claim as false and says he has reason to believe that peace will be restored very quickly.

A federal thrust from the south in an effort to cut the railway line between Vera Cruz and the rebel armies is reported in a movement by General Juan Hernandez over the railway from Santa Luceria, with Cordoba and Colima as his objectives.

In the southern area, the Mexican war department says the operations against Guadalajara, the rebel stronghold, are "developing formally."

Fighting Resumed
MEXICO CITY, Dec. 20.—(By the Associated Press.)—Rebel Enrique Calles, 50 miles from Vera Cruz, stated that fighting has been resumed on the outskirts of Puebla and Esperanza, while Tehuacan has been evacuated by the forces under General Fortunato Macias and occupied by a federal column. Puebla is 63 miles southeast of Mexico City.

In his allocution delivered at the secret consistory today, Pope Pius XI pointed out that peace conditions in Europe had not changed for the last

SAYS WORLD MUST GO TO RESCUE OF GERMANY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Some administration officials believe that the world must go to the rescue of Germany with charity.

Word has reached Washington that negotiations for a commercial loan, the proceeds of which might be used to feed the destitute German population, are not encouraging.

High treasury officials are convinced it will be impossible for Germany as a nation or any of its citizens to meet its obligations while the reparations commission holds a drawing on the country's resources.

The situation in Germany is regarded as extremely serious, but officials appear to believe there is hope for restoring stability.

CRASHED THROUGH FENCE TO AVOID ACCIDENT

In order to avoid striking a car which suddenly appeared before him at the junction of Pawtucket and Washington streets at 12 o'clock today, Dr. Robert L. Jones swerved his machine across Pawtucket street, over the sidewalk and through the heavy iron fence around the yard of the home of Rev. Percy E. Thomas. Dr. Jones was unhurt but his car was considerably damaged and portions of the fence were lodged in the transmission. As he put his machine over the sidewalk he knocked over a street lamp post.

The car, which suddenly appeared out of Washington street and did not stop and persons who witnessed the accident were unable to get his registration number, saying that it carried no rear plate.

ROGERS HALL STUDENTS ON WAY HOME

Eighty-five pupils of Rogers Hall school are today speeding to their homes in all corners of the United States. The combined Christmas and New Year's vacations are on.

Until the return of the young ladies to their studies at the re-opening of the school on January 3, the institution on Rogers street will be minus its usual colorful activities of students feminine.

The final departure for homeland took place yesterday afternoon and last evening. More than 50 pupils entrained on Tuesday for family broods far and near. Yesterday's departures included those who reside nearer Lowell.

Nearly every large city in the United States is represented on Rogers Hall school enrollments. Some students come from as far away as the state of Washington. Among the first to leave Lowell with Christmas baggage en suite were pupils bound for Pacific coast states and the far south. This year's student enrollment has been an impressive one in number of arrivals from far distance.

The school is gaily decorated with holiday wreaths and other sparkling Christmas mementoes. The brilliantly decorated Yuletide festival tree that charmed the friendly members, pupils and guests at the Christmas-tree celebration and dinner Tuesday night is still in place. At that time about 75 children were treated to a genuine Christmas party with all accessories to please their childish hearts. It was one of the merriest parties ever conducted at Rogers Hall school.

Classes for the present season were concluded officially on Dec. 19. Resumption of school schedules will come on Jan. 3, with no New Year's observances at the institution on Rogers street because of school closing.

OUT OUR WAY

LITTLE SNOW IN NEW ENGLAND
BOSTON, Dec. 20.—For the first time in years at this date in September, there is not enough snow on the ground to impede motor vehicle traffic in any part of New England. This was shown by the weather bureau weekly forecast bulletin, issued yesterday, the first of its annual winter series. Snow appeared only in the mountain regions. Dirt roads, especially in northern sections, are rough and frozen. The bulletin says that automobiles are taking full advantage of the situation and that traffic is heavy.

PANCHO VILLA FINED $25
NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Pancho Villa, world's heavyweight pugilistic champion, was fined $25 yesterday for speeding in his automobile. "Pancho," said the magistrate, "I think you ought to confine your speed to the ring and not to the public highway." Villa said he had not realized he was going so fast. He thanked the magistrate for his comment of speed in the ring.

GETS LIFE

George Vexner, former French aviator, has started serving a life sentence in the Texas state penitentiary for the murder of his fiancée, Gabrielle Plouquet. While awaiting trial, he pleaded to be executed, offering to sell his body as bait to attract a murderer for a friend in jail on a misdemeanor charge. But the judge disappointed him.

INJUNCTION AGAINST MINISTER
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Dec. 20.—A permanent injunction, restraining the Rev. Thomas A. Collett from entering or performing the priestly functions of Grace Episcopal church at City Island, was granted yesterday by Supreme Court Justice Morsehauser. Mr. Collett's contract as minister, it was held, expired last October and had not been renewed.

Home-made, but Has No Equal for Coughs

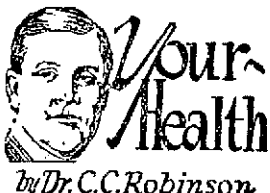

Makes a family supply of really dependable cough medicine. Easily prepared, and gives about $3.

If you have a severe cough or chest cold accompanied with soreness, throat tickle, hoarseness, or difficult breathing, night with even and you want quick help, try this reliable old home-made cough remedy. Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. This recipe makes a pint of really remarkable cough remedy. It tastes good, and in spite of its low cost, it can be depended upon to give quick and lasting relief.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. It loosens and raises the phlegm, stops throat tickle and soothes and heals the irritated membranes that line the throat and bronchial tubes with a promptness, ease and certainty that it is really astonishing.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and is probably the best known means of overcoming severe coughs, throat and chest colds.

There are many worthless imitations of this mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Your Health by Dr. C.C. Robinson

MUSIC AS MEDICINE
In the New York Nursery and Child's hospital, good music will henceforth form a part of the regular program. As a result of musical treatment in this institution during a recent period of sixty days, it was quite definitely established that its value as a curative and restorative agent was very marked. The tests were tried at first with mothers in the maternity wards but also with the babies and sick children.

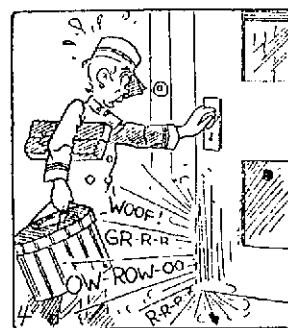

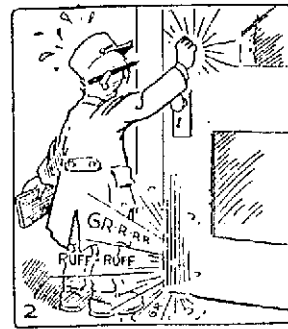

The tests have amply demonstrated that music of the right kind has a marked therapeutic effect on the spirits and even on the minds of these hospital patients. Music seems to create a desire to rest well and enjoy the promised hope music instills in their souls. Just what it is in good music that causes patients to sit up and take notice or to forget for the time being, and undoubtedly for a much longer period, the pain that is gnawing at their vital health condition is hard for a physician to diagnose.

But this we do know—the heart beats faster in full health when a brass band strikes up a stirring march, the same holds true when we are ill or convalescing. Mother's song of other days brought peace to the heart of childhood when she sang away the pain of cuts, aches or bumps.

There is a peculiar gland action in the human body that responds to the stimulus of music. The pituitary gland of the sphenoid bone in the cranium has been accused of sending out the stimulus in music to which the body responds during periods of depression for renewed hope, health and happiness. Medical science is not so sure of this, however, but let us hope it is true.

This situation is a positive one. Health may be hastened for many patients by the use of music or a concert of sweet sounds. The writer is well acquainted with a woman over 60 years of age who has been ill in bed for almost two years. Music by means of radio has restored her health to a marked degree.

APPEAL TO FARMERS

Federal Farm Loan Board
Urges Them to Turn to
Diversification of Crops

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The Federal Farm Loan Board urged the farmers of the country yesterday to turn to diversification of crops and the development of co-operative marketing as the only sound basis for agricultural prosperity.

Based on its observations on data supplied by the 12 federal land bank presidents, who have just concluded their winter conference here, the board said in a statement that conditions in the agricultural industry showed a "very satisfactory improvement" but it felt that full advantage of the situation might not be taken by the farmers unless they diversified crops and organized for their sale.

The information furnished by the bank officials gave every reason, the statement said, for the belief that the improvement noted in the past year would continue.

GUARD SLAYER OF "KID DROPPER"

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Precautions were taken yesterday by the police to prevent gangsters from carrying out their threat "to get" Louis Cohen, slayer of the notorious "Kid Dropper," when he departed for Sing Sing.

Nine deputy sheriffs escorted Cohen and other prisoners. Several squads of patrolmen and detectives were scattered about the Grand Central station.

Nothing happened.

Cohen was sentenced to serve from 20 years to life.

Walker was hurled 25 feet in the air and landed 50 feet away in a coal pile. His body was badly burned. Glynn escaped injury. The authorities were unable to account for the explosion, which blew out one end of the tank.

LOWELL DISTRICT COURT

Motor Vehicle Operator Fined

$100 for Driving While

Drunk—Liquor Cases

Ernest Vincent appeared in district court this morning on charges of drunkenness and operating a motor vehicle while he was under the influence of liquor. He was fined $100 on the latter charge, while the drunkenness was placed on file.

Vincent's arrest was brought about yesterday afternoon by Officer Patrick Clark and Motorcycle Officer Daniel Lynch after Vincent's machine had collided with another machine in Central street. George Zilinski, who was in the car with him at the time, was arrested for drunkenness and paid a $5 fine for this offense this morning. Both men reside in Braintree.

Henry Lambert pleaded guilty to illegally keeping liquor and was fined $100. Joseph Robert, who was arrested on the same premises, was found not guilty and discharged.

Joseph Tighe paid a $100 fine for illegal keeping. He and Manuel Mello were arrested in a Central street tenement yesterday afternoon. Mello was found not guilty.

Charles W. Kimball of Nashua was continued until tomorrow on charges of operating without license or registration, and with driving in a manner to endanger the lives and safety of the public. Raymond Jones will appear Saturday to answer charges of operating without license or registration.

John H. Hill, illegally keeping beer, was fined $50.

Loring Elliot, a laborer at the state infirmary in Tewksbury, was sentenced to the house of correction for 10 days on a drunkenness charge.

Clarence C. Baker was dismissed on charges of drunkenness and operating an automobile while he was under the influence of liquor.

LOWELL RADIO CLUB

SELLS RADIO SET

Owing to the present lack of quarters, the radio set which is the property of the Lowell Radio club, was auctioned off last Sunday at a meeting of the club, and was purchased by Everett Taylor, president of the club, and owner of Station WLT. He intends to install the set at his home at 155 Winthrop avenue. It is probable that when the club finds a place that is suitable for new rooms, and where the interference caused by the city noises in the old quarters will not be present, that a new and up-to-date set will be installed. The auction was conducted by Randolph Reed.

COAL CAR ORDER

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Another postponement of the effective date of the assigned coal car order has been made by the interstate commerce commission until April 1, 1924.

The order resulted from a decision of the commission that railroads could no longer give special service to coal mines producing coal fuel or to owners of private cars used in transporting coal, and originally was to have gone into effect Jan. 1. Protests from railroads and private car owners resulted in a trial of the case.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 20.—The Yale club of New York is planning to celebrate the athletic victories of Yale teams in 1923, regarded by many Yale men as the most remarkable year in the university's athletic history.

Through George T. Allen, president of the club, invitations were issued for the celebration to be held in New York, Feb. 25. A dinner and theatre party with supper following, are planned. Members of all winning Yale teams and their coaches, chairmen of undergraduate publications, presidents of societies and representatives of other extra-curriculum activities, will be guests of the club.

When throngs of artisans and workmen lined the Via del Corso, the Borgo Vecchio and Piazza Navona leading to the Vatican, to watch the cardinal's elevation, the pope in the apostolic palace for the first time in the creation of bishops in the modern era. It ended some three hours of the solemn hall when the pontiff, Pius XI, seated upon the throne of St. Peter, ordered the raising of the new cardinals, who were then seated in the balcony of the apostolic palace, leaving the pope to the congratulations of their supporters.

When the members of the papal curia arrived at the Vatican, they found the Swiss Guard, in full dress uniforms and equipped with bayoneted rifles, lined up in the courtyard of St. Peter's to receive them. From the court the cardinal ascended directly to the consistory hall, where he waited the arrival of the pope.

Suddenly a door was thrown open and a distant chant was heard, gradually coming nearer, until the white-robed singers of the choir appeared, marching to the throne which had been erected at one end of the hall. After the choir sang the Swiss Guard, in full dress uniforms and equipped with bayoneted rifles, lined up in the courtyard of St. Peter's to receive them. From the court the cardinal ascended directly to the consistory hall, where he waited the arrival of the pope.

As soon as Pius was seated on the throne, the ceremony of the kissing of the ring took place. When this part of the ritual was finished, the pontiff pronounced the "Ex auctoritate" which was the signal for everyone except His Holiness and the cardinals to leave the hall.

As soon as the doors were closed, Pius offered a prayer to the Holy Ghost to be with him and the cardinals on so solemn an occasion. He then delivered his allocution at the foot of which he pronounced in Latin the sacramental formula that runs as follows:

"Venerable brothers, many of your colleagues have paid their debt to eternity. The crises of the government of the church are increasing daily, therefore, I have thought of strengthening the sacred college, raising to your sublime dignity the following: Aurelio Galli and Evaristo Lumbi, persons full of doctrine and zeal."

"What do you say?"

The cardinals gave their assent by raising their skullcaps, whereupon the pontiff formally nominated the two prelates as "cardinals of the holy Roman church."

Then the pontiff placed upon their fingers the cardinals' ring and when they had briefly thanked the holy father for the honor conferred upon them, the pope bestowed upon all the cardinals the apostolic benediction.

The doors of the hall opened, the papal guards rushed to escort Pius back to his chambers, and the consistory was over.

Pius recalled that the letter he had addressed to Cardinal Gasparri, papal secretary of state, relative to relieving the embassies of Central Europe, was having happy results, but he said much still remained to be done because of the continued bitterness and antagonism of all kinds were increasing, especially with the approach of winter.

Cardinal Gasparri has appealed for help to the nations of accredited countries, having an abundance of wheat, and the pope said he trusted this appeal might bear results sufficient to relieve the famine.

He expressed great gratification at the abundant use of help received from all sides and his thanks for the efforts put forward to save from death an untold number of people in Central Europe and the Near East.

Turning to Russia, His Holiness issued a special message for the life of the late Emperor Nicholas II, who will suffer in memory in his prison, but against those measures for sorrow they were to be put reasons for releasing him, such as the holding of the Imperial coronation in 1916, and the fact that the Emperor, read at the altar, the body of St. Thomas Aquinas, the companion of St. Joseph and the last to be one of the Spanish sovereigns, who during their entire reign in the Central city, both in our presence, and before the Roman people, have the noble testimony of their faith and their devotion to the apostolic seat.

The pontiff added that in the loyalty of the new reign to the church it was easy to recognize them as representing the Russian nation, so faithful to Christ and His word.

Pope Pius concluded by saying: "We announce to you the good news that the episcopates of Ireland, which is so dear to our heart, are happily approaching a sorghum. We have conferred the assurance of this in the recent pastoral letter of Cardinal Logue, with the later news concerning it."

His Holiness then performed the sacramental rite of the new cardinals.

Philippine islands are "land of rights" and to be free and independent." The resolution calls attention to despatches published last May in various American newspapers in which it was declared Governor Wood had in his possession a list of names of "senators, representatives and others prominent in Washington social life, who received payment from the Philippine island government for their services in the Philippine islands." It also refers to the charges made in some quarters that Governor Wood has assumed power and "has assumed the role of dictator."

Attention is called to the row which developed recently between Governor Wood and various local government officials and determined in the resignation of the latter, and reference is made to Governor Wood's administration in Cuba and to the presidential campaign conducted in his behalf in 1920.

"In justice to Governor Wood and those who contributed to his political campaign," the resolution reads, "the investigation should be extended to include charges to the effect that rights in the Philippines have been or proposed to be sold to private American interests are not unrelated to such considerations."

Mr. Frear suggests that the investigation committee would do well to look into the deposit of Philippine government funds in various American banks. A total of $31,440,213 of such funds, he says, are in banks and trust companies in the United States.

THE SALVATION ARMY

Christmas Collection Kettles

Are Not Filling Up Very Rapidly This Year

Remember the Salvation Army! Appeals to Lowell charity are never made in vain.

Don't forget the organization that since 1865 has been the year to provide clothing, food and general supplies as well as money for supplicants who suffer from blighting effects of poverty, ill nourishment, sickness, disease and privations sometimes untold.

Salvation Army Christmas collection kettles are not filling up so rapidly this year as was the case last year. Commandant Charles M. Abbott, the new local leader of the Army organization with headquarters on Appleton street, fears that many of the phiblic requests now on file at Army offices for immediate relief, may have to go unheeded. If war-torn men and women do not act quickly in providing sufficient funds to assist the Army workers in responding to the increasing number of appeals.

Although not by any means discouraged at the prospects ahead, Commandant Abbott and his co-workers are today convinced that many people who might contribute to the cause have neglected to do so because they have not been aware of the serious situation that confronts relief workers in Lowell and vicinity this year.

The appeals for charitable aid have more than doubled during the past month, Mr. Abbott reports. He has the facts to back up his sorry statement.

The present list of poverty-stricken men, women and children on the Army's carefully compiled list is imposing enough to touch the coldest heart. Listen to a small portion of the depressing record that cannot be reported in full in these columns:

There is one Lowell family with husband and wife and ten children absolutely down and out through no fault of the parents. Sickness, lack of nutritive sustenance and the Army has been aiding the unfortunate people regularly for sometime, with limited funds and food supplies in the bargain.

Another family on Commandant Abbott's list consists of parents with nine children, some of them ill. The father is out of work and not well nourished. This case is among the deplorable ones.

A third case has six children, two ill and a mother in a local hospital. The father, who is a seaman, is out of work and helps to care for the sorry household, but his funds are small and this condition, thoroughly investigated, is being relieved temporarily by the Salvation Army workers and house visitors.

A well-known local insurance company man today provided the Army commandant with an impressive list of 21 families, all of whom are in need of Christmas charity. It was collected by young men familiar with Lowell homes where small insurance benefits are paid weekly by the house-to-house collector system. The agents are doing their part in bringing to the attention of the proper authorities conditions in numerous homes that have thoroughly aroused their sympathetic natures. It is evidence, charitable workers say, of a splendid work in civic welfare.

In Merrimack square, perhaps, collections have come in more steadily and from a various assortment of people. Street railwaymen have contributed liberally. "Ask the starter—he knows!"

Newshy's trot about in the late afternoon and evening and contribute their mite, too. That fact is verified today by the rosy-cheeked young Salvation Army who stood in front of The Sun building and loudly rang her little bell and smiled at all passers-by. This kettle is the newshy's kettle, says Army collectors call it.

Army collectors are also going the rounds of the city, calling at business houses, homes, shops, stores, parades, balls and all havens of human activities. Commandant Abbott wants it clearly understood that the Army's relief work is distributed among the representatives of all races and creeds—no one is left out if the relief packages, medicine or food are sufficient to go around.

Some Lowell contributors are sending good-sized checks to Army headquarters. Commandant Abbott wishes their gifts be more of them. All contributions by mail or otherwise will be duly and gratefully acknowledged and reports made, upon request, of all relief work done and where and how the money has been spent in this Lowell campaign to aid Lowell's unfortunate people.

TO AMEND VOLSTEAD ACT
WASHINGTON, Dec. 20—Amendment of the Volstead act, increasing the legal alcoholic content of beverages to three per cent and removing present restrictions on issuance of physicians' prescriptions, was prepared in two bills yesterday by Senator Edges, republican, New Jersey.

Errors of as much as 25 per cent are not uncommon in household measuring cups now on the market, investigation by the United States bureau of standards has revealed.

BURGLAR SHOT, STOLEN CLOTH RECOVERED

BOSTON, Dec. 20.—Three burglars who had looted stolen cloth from a South End tailor shop into a stolen automobile early today, escaped after one of them apparently had been wounded by a shot from Patrolman Richard H. Blakey's pistol. Blakey saw the car standing in front of Julius Adlo's tailoring shop on Hollis street, and a man beside it with a bundle of cloth in his arms.

The man ran and when he disregarded the patrolman's order to stop, Blakey fired. The man staggered against a building and fell. At the same moment Blakey heard a noise behind him, and turned to see two other men come from the tailor shop. They disarmed him and when he returned he found that the first burglar had disappeared. A bystander told the officer that someone had picked up the man and taken him away in an automobile.

The stolen cloth, valued at $1000, was found in the car which the burglars had abandoned. The car was found to have been stolen last night from Martin Hennessy of this city.

GIRL WINS SUIT AGAINST FATHER

LAWRENCE, Dec. 20.—Judge Joseph A. Walsh in superior court yesterday ordered a verdict for the defendant in the case of Mary Mason, 11 years old, against her father, Alex. Mason of 79 Myrtle street, Lawrence.

In an action of tort for $5000, and referred to the case to the supreme court, the plaintiff sought a question of law. There is no local precedent of a child suing a parent for damages as a result of injuries received in an accident. The girl was seriously hurt in an automobile accident Oct. 14, 1921, while riding in her father's car. Counsel for the girl claimed she was a passenger in the car by order of her father, who at the time was taking her to school, and contended that the child was legally in the custody of her mother. It was claimed in the action that since the accident these girls' mental development has been retarded.

CLOSE OF LECTURES AT NORMAL SCHOOL

The last of a series of lectures on the general subject, "General Opportunities for Teachers," which has been running at the State Normal school weekly, was given yesterday by Harry E. Gardner, of the Teacher's Registration Bureau in Boston. The phase of the subject discussed by Mr. Gardner was "Factors in the Superintendent's Selection of a Teacher." He was introduced by his daughter, a student at the school.

While there is a great deal of importance in the preparation that the prospective teacher must have a study and practice along the line that she is going to teach, it is important also that he or she should know how to get the position as well as being able to obtain it after she is accepted. Teachers are not born as is popularly supposed, but through the efforts of the normal schools in the state, they can be made. Certain things are more or less essential, however, such as good health, love of children, the desire to teach, and the will to persevere in the face of disappointments.

The importance of proper preparation is evidenced by the fact that all the teachers in rural schools, where the least money is paid, over 60 per cent are not graduates of college or normal school. The reason is that superintendents of city school systems insist on knowing that the future instructor is thoroughly prepared, and the best way of knowing this is by a careful survey of the student record. The elements in this record that are considered as the most important are attitude, scholarship, regularity of attendance, faithfulness in doing work, and ability to keep going under adverse conditions. In the case of a teacher who has had experience, these points are also considered. In determining her attitude toward her pupils, toward discipline, and her spirit in community matters.

Other points considered important by the superintendents are personality, personal appearance, personal bearing, and the manner in which the applicant blank is filled in. Overdressing in the matter of one's clothes are equally to be avoided, also the use of cosmetics for adornment of the features. Keenness in bearing and carriage, a well-modulated voice, and an alertness in appearance are essential. On the application blank candidates should be taken to use good penmanship, to sign properly, and in all come as close to perfection as is possible. Many teachers have lost positions because they differed with Webster in the spelling of words which they found it necessary to use.

In closing, Mr. Gardner remarked that it is the graduate who seeks a position is able to convince the superintendent that she has an ideal for service, through the medium of teaching, and possesses most of the other requisites she is fairly certain of finding the job.

SALE OF GOVERNMENT PROPERTY PROPOSED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Sale of the following government property is proposed in an auction lot prepared today by Representative Britten, republican, Illinois, a member of the naval committee at Waukegan, Mass., former naval reservations at Waukegan Island, and Wood Island, in Maine, and at Provincetown, Mass.

An old coal depot at Frenchman's Bay, Me., and a nitre depot at Malden, Mass.

GOULD ESTATE SHRINKS $35,000,000

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—The estate of the late George Jay Gould has shrunk in value from $55,000,000 at the time of his death last May to $20,000,000. This was announced yesterday by Supreme Court Justice in ordering payment of $20,000,000 each to three children by Mr. Gould's first wife—Jay Gould, Mrs. Gloria Gould Bishop and Mrs. Edith Gould Wainwright. The money is to come from that part of the estate set aside for their father during his life and is to be in the nature of a payment on account of their shares in the principal of the trust estate.

The $35,000,000 shrink in a period of seven months is in the actual market value of securities.

10-GAME SCHEDULE TOO MUCH FOR ONE SEASON

"Of one thing I am convinced," says Coach Knute Rockne of Notre Dame, "no college team can play 10 games on successive Saturdays, a majority of them major contests, and keep from going stale."

The season just closed has taught me that lesson. Next season it is my intention to play only eight games, with a breather before one of the big contests. Since Nebraska has beaten us two years in succession, all probability I will point my team for that game next season. We must win out those two defeats.

"A team without spirit, the old adage is no good, regardless of its recognized strength, and when a team loses its spirit, it loses its life."

My team lacked fighting spirit in the Nebraska game and suffered defeat. Lack of spirit is a feature of play that every coach must constantly guard against.

QUILTED NEGLECTED

Warm negligees for cold days are made of changeable silk, lined with wool and silk and quilted like the old-fashioned quilt. Sometimes they create a further illusion of warmth by bands of fluffy fur.

PANAMA CANAL RECORD

PANAMA, Dec. 20.—During the first fortnight in December 251 vessels passed through the Panama Canal, setting a new record for this period. The tolls amounted to $1,140,319.

French styles appear in Constantinople almost as soon as they do in Paris.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 13

"Hey, what's the matter?" snapped Mr. Pendulum. "What has happened to this old clock? Why doesn't it start to going so I can have a ride?" "Don't be impatient," replied Ticky. "The numbers aren't even on the face of the clock yet." And then the numbers started arriving on the scene.

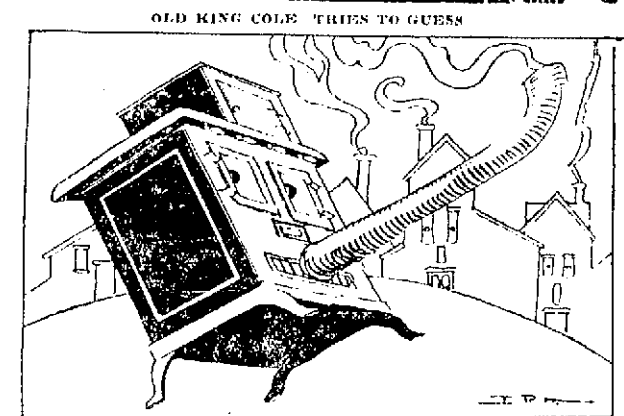

First of all, came Number 1. Ticky explained to Jack that each number had to know what his work was supposed to be before he was allowed to climb into place on the clock's face. "What is your job?" Ticky asked Number 1. "Oh, I tell children when to go to school in the afternoon," he said.

"That's correct," smiled Ticky. And Number 1 went up the ladder and crawled into place. "Now, Number 2," said Ticky. "What are you supposed to tell?" And Number 2 replied, "I tell mother when to put baby to bed for its afternoon nap." And Number 2 also climbed into place. (Continued.)

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

HE SMOKES A PIPE THAT'S THIRTY FEET LONG

"Make way for the Riddle Lady," called Humpty Dumpty. "She's coming to ask another riddle."

Nancy and Nick ran to open the door of her coach, and out she stepped while all the Riddle Lady people crowded around to hear. This was the riddle she asked:

"Who sits in a room
And never moves,
But hisses, roars and spatters.
He has four legs,
Yet not an arm,
And a dozen doors and shutters."

"He's black as a coal
And yet all times,
He turns a fiery red.
He eats great chunks
Of coal or wood.
He's certainly well fed."

"If he's not fed
He catches cold
And has an awful chill.
Then matches are
His medicine,
And save a doctor bill."

"His habits are
As steady as
A sailor's heavean light:
Yet if you are
Not watching him
He'll go right out at night."

"He's loads of friends,
There's not a house,
From nobleman to peasant,
Where he's not welcome,
For, my dears,

"He's useful, strong and pleasant."
"I'll bet you know what it is," whispered Old King Cole to Nick. "I know, the answer the minute she said his pipe stretched to the wall. There is only one person who has a pipe that is longer than mine and that is..."

"I know what it is," shouted the Baker Man. "I know it the minute you said that it could bake a cake, it's..."

"It's a stove!" said Nancy, who had gotten tired of so much talking.

"Right!" cried the Riddle Lady. "And the prize today is a party. Sit down everybody. The stove has everything ready except the ice cream."
